

The Daylight Store

Nothing Like These Suits and Coats

Within $5.00 of the price we offer them strictly one price to all

COATS $5 UP SUITS $15.00 UP

The Greatest
LINE OF SHOES
In Bates County

American Clothing House

The Good Clothes Store

For Your Approval BUTLER'S NEW PHOTOPLAY HOUSE

Fisk Opera House
Playing Mutual Masterpieces, DeLuxe. Every evening at 7:30
P. M. and 9:00 P. M.

Admission 5 & 10c

"Pictures of Quality
for People Who Prefer"

C. R. Long was a business visitor to Kansas City Tuesday.

Willard Isley of Rich Hill was a county seat visitor Sunday.

Mrs. Forrest Kerrens visited relatives in Rich Hill last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stone spent Sunday visiting friends in Adrian.

Judge P. A. Bruce, of Adrian, made a business trip to this city Monday.

Wanted—Butter and eggs at McCullough's Grocery, North Main St. 25-3t

Mrs. John White was up from Rich Hill visiting relatives Thursday of last week.

Sheriff Johnson was a business visitor to Rich Hill and Hume one day the last of the week.

George Herrell, of Adrian, was a business visitor to the county seat Monday afternoon.

Misses Iva, Mable and Lula Rockhold spent Sunday with home folks near Adrian.

Mrs. Jesse Burns, of Lone Tree, Mo., visited her sister, Mrs. Elmer Jones, one day last week.

Former County Treasurer Sam'l Coleman, of Deepwater, was a Butler visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. P. M. Woods visited her daughter, Mrs. L. W. Richardson, in Adrian, one day last week.

Mrs. H. P. Elliott of Rich Hill visited her daughter, Mrs. Harve Johnson, the last of the week.

Grady Smith an enterprising young farmer of eastern Bates, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Attorney H. H. Heck of Rich Hill transacted legal business in this city one day the last of the week.

Miss Stella Talbott came down from Adrian, Saturday on a visit to her friend, Miss Helen Braden.

7 bars Crystal White soap, 25 cents on 50c orders Saturday at McCullough's Grocery, North Main St. 25-1t

Prof. Stephen Smith, principal of the Harrisonville High School, was visiting friends in this city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Seelinger came up from Rich Hill Thursday and spent the day with relatives in this city.

Major and Mrs. Sam Walls of Adrian motored down and spent Monday afternoon in this city visiting friends.

Mrs. Lillian Emerson returned Thursday of last week from Kansas City where she had been visiting relatives.

For sale—High grade hand vacuum cleaner with fixtures, child's trundle bed, child's safety corral. 21-1f

E. K. Wolfe, South Methodist Parsonage.

Peaberry coffee 20 cents per pound at McCullough's Grocery, North Main St. 25-3t

Dr. M. I. Hurley, who has charge of the hog cholera control for Cass county was a Sunday visitor to this city.

Dr. C. J. Allen of Rich Hill, attended a meeting of the Bates County Medical Association in this city Thursday.

Miss Eleanor Lynch, who has spent some time in Chicago with her brother, Walter, returned home Sunday night.

Miss Bertie Silvers and Miss Nora Mallis attended a Christian Endeavor district meeting in Kansas City Saturday.

Mrs. Raymond Percival, of Cole Camp, Mo., is in the city visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Fisk.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Shubert entertained Friday with a dinner in honor of the 85th birthday of her neighbor, Mrs. Elizabeth Scott.

R. J. Smith has let the contract for a modern bungalow on his lot on North Delaware Street. George Vannoy is the contractor.

Among our exchanges this week we find Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Merwin Sun. It is a newsy, well printed paper. B. J. Barrett is the editor.

New book racks are being put in the vault in the recorder's office in the court house. Buxton & Skinner, of St. Louis, are doing the work.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith of Duncan, Okla., spent a few days in this city last week visiting Dr. Smith's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith.

Miss Maurine Chambers who is attending school at Columbia, arrived in the city last week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cassidy of Lone Oak, were in the city Monday enroute to Adrian where they will be the guests of Miss Phronia Hood.

Mrs. T. J. Coonrod, who spent several days in this city visiting at the home of her son, Prof. W. L. Coonrod, returned to her home near Urich Sunday.

Theodore Wemott, who holds a responsible position in Kansas City, was down the first of the week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wemott.

The Bates County Medical Association held a meeting in the court house in this city Thursday. Several interesting and instructive talks were made.

Mrs. C. E. McCurdy, who has been spending the winter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ellis of Adrian visited friends in this city the last of the week.

W. A. Walker, Edgar Harris, Frank Lee and Dr. C. P. Bowden of Appleton City passed through Butler Tuesday on their way to the Republican convention at Excelsior Springs.

W. F. Joslin, who has been in this city for some time working in the interest of the Knights and Ladies, left the last of the week for Springfield, Mo., where he will work in the interest of his order. Mr. Joslin, who is an old time newspaper man, is sure a live one.

Miss Mildred Lynch, who is attending Stephens College at Columbia arrived in the city Sunday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Lynch, south of town.

Mrs. Frank McCleary returned to her home at Lawrence, Kas., Sunday after a month's visit at the home of her father, C. C. Duke.

Leslie Clinkenbeard, Ed Armstrong of this city, and Frank Isley of Rich Hill, went to Kansas City Sunday and drove back two new model 75 Overland Cars.

Miss Cecil Nicolay, who is attending the state normal school at Warrensburg, spent Sunday in this city at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Nicolay.

Miss Bessie Grube, formerly a teacher in the Butler High School, spent Sunday in this city with Miss Dora B. Smith. Miss Grube is now teaching in the Nevada High School.

Frank M. Ludwig, a prominent young attorney of Kansas City was in town Friday on a business mission and to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ludwig.

W. G. Reed of Mopeka, Kas., spent Sunday in the city visiting friends. Mr. Reed is connected with the telephone department of the Kansas State Utilities Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. William Allen left Sunday for Los Angeles, California, where they will spend the summer. They rented their home on North Delaware Street to Will Stanley.

William Dent of Sapulpa, Oklahoma, is visiting friends in Butler and vicinity. Mr. Dent is a former resident of Summit township this being his first visit to these parts in 12 years.

Mrs. E. K. Wolfe and daughters, Dixie D., and Katherine Elizabeth spent a few days in Kansas City last week visiting at the home of Mrs. Wolfe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Tunstall.

Among our exchanges this week we find the Cedar Rapids (Iowa) Outlook. The name of R. L. McDonald, a former Butler newspaper man is at the head of the editorial column as editor.

Gus Cheney, charged with assaulting Lawrence Griffith some time ago in Rich Hill, had his preliminary last week and was bound over to the Circuit Court says the Rich Hill Enterprise.

Joe Flemming, a prominent and progressive farmer and stock breeder of west of town was in Saturday and informs us that he has purchased the fine imported stallion, Roulter, of Wm. W. Frazier, of near Adrian.

Chas. Morrill, Everett Morrill, Joe Wix and Alex Moore of Pleasant Gap passed through Butler Monday en route to Adrian where they attended a county convention of the Christian church.

The United Drug Co., on the east side are doing business this week under difficulties. The floor in their store is torn out and is being replaced with concrete and tile. When completed and new fixtures installed Mr. Travis will have one of the most attractive store rooms in the city.

W. T. Duncan, aged 57 years, a former resident of Rich Hill, committed suicide at Windsor, Mo., Friday night by discharging the contents of a shot gun into his head causing instant death says the Rich Hill Review.

Josephine Piggott, of Helena, Mont., who has been visiting relatives and friends in Booneville, Kansas City, and Leavenworth, Kas., arrived in the city Monday evening and will continue her visit to her aunt Mrs. J. A. Trimble.

J. E. Shutt, of Warrensburg, was in the city last week on a business mission. Mr. Shutt was for many years a resident of Butler and Bates county and he greatly enjoys getting back occasionally and meeting his old friends and neighbors.

The Times good friend, R. A. Hiser of Deer Creek made this office an appreciated call while in the city last week. Mr. Hiser is democratic committeeman from his township and is one of Bates county's most energetic, progressive democrats.

Rev. R. M. Webdel returned Monday morning from Antioch where he preached Sunday. Rev. Webdel is District Missionary of the Butler Association of the Baptist church with headquarters at Butler. He has recently held good meetings at Merwin and Passaic.

Mrs. Pearl Beachamp returned to her home in Columbia Sunday after a visit in this city with her daughter, Miss Alene Beachamp, teacher of music and drawing in the Butler High School. Mrs. Beachamp is a teacher of languages in Stephens College at Columbia.

H. O. Maxey will go to Metz Saturday where he will deliver an address on the consolidated schools. Mr. Maxey has made a thorough study of the Buford Consolidated School Law and is prepared to speak with authority on this subject.

Norfleet & Roman are remodeling the garage on Ohio street. The main entrance is being placed in the center of the building and a big display window will be where the entrance now is. This arrangement will leave very much more room for the storing of cars besides being more convenient.

A committee of ladies from the Wednesday Coterie Club have been soliciting donations of funds, beddings, etc., for the new county infirmary during the last week. The ladies have met with substantial success in this most worthy cause. By the time arrives for the opening of the infirmary the ladies of the Coterie hope to be able to furnish the bedrooms in good shape.

R. N. Montgomery and family became residents of Rich Hill today (Monday) having moved in from the fine Montgomery farm nine miles east of this city. Mr. Montgomery is president of the Commercial State Bank of Rich Hill and is one of Bates county's best citizens. Mr. Montgomery and family will meet with a most cordial welcome to Rich Hill.—Rich Hill Review.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new smelters at Rich Hill, says the Review. The forms have been set for kilns No. 1, 2, 3, and 4 and are waiting the unloading of chat, sand and brick for their completion. New ore bins have been constructed, the bridge work has been completed and ties laid for the steel rails. As soon as the rails are laid the force will be increased to 40 men and the work rushed to completion.

Among those from this city who attended the Christian church convention at Adrian Monday were: Mrs. E. N. Chastain, Mrs. Ed Griffin, Mrs. R. M. Talbert, Mrs. W. E. Walton, Mrs. J. F. Smith, Mrs. W. J. Nix, Mrs. Len Shubert, Mrs. Glen Haggard, Mrs. A. B. Owen, Mrs. John Kinn, Mrs. Marie Lindsay, Mrs. C. A. Campbell, Mrs. J. L. Wise, Misses Winnie Priestly and Ola Guyton.

J. T. Prewitt, who conducts the soda fountain and candy counter in the Rhodes Pharmacy, on the north side has rented the room now occupied by the N. B. Jeter Jewelry Store on the west side, where he will open a first class candy kitchen. The Rhodes Pharmacy will occupy the entire room on the north side. Mr. Jeter, who has been in his present location on the west side for several years, will move into the corner room in the opera house block.

W. S. Steele, of Adrian, was in Butler the first of the week visiting relatives and friends.

John Coleman of the Denton-Coleman company transacted business in St. Louis Monday.

Miss Goldie Newsome, who has been visiting her sister in Texarkana, Tex., returned home the last of the week.

B. F. Johnson came down from Kansas City Monday and is spending a few days in this city with his family.

The proposition for a consolidated school at Amoret was defeated by a large majority at a special election Tuesday.

T. W. McGee, of Carthage, Mo., has accepted a position as manager of the dry goods department of the American Clothing House.

Miss Ora Newsome, who is teaching school in Kansas City, was in the city the first of the week visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Newsome.

For sale—Eighty acres of land 5 miles southwest of Butler on Butler and Rich Hill road. For particulars write J. A. Carpenter, Brewster, Kans., R. 1. 4-1f

The fire department was called to the residence of Hill Orear on East Pine street Tuesday about 1 o'clock. The blaze, a small one on the roof, caused by a defective flue, was extinguished before the arrival of the fire department. The loss was small.

At the regular meeting of the city council Tuesday night, the resignation of Orville Ray as caretaker and driver for the fire department was accepted to take effect April 15. Will Barber was appointed to take the position vacated by Mr. Ray.

Miss Kate Blair, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Snider, returned to her home in St. Louis Thursday. Miss Blair is a daughter of Rev. Blair who was for many years pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church in this city.

The Clean Up Committee asks that all those who gather up the trash from their premises each spring and have the same hauled away to do the same this year, as the committee has more than it can handle, and any help that they can get will be appreciated.

Capt. M. B. Carrio and wife departed Tuesday for Calico Rock, Ark., having traded their farm at Rockville for land in Arkansas. Capt. Carrio and wife have been residents of Bates county for many years and, in changing locations, they take with them the best wishes of friends for success and health.—Rich Hill Review.

The following students are candidates for graduation, and will upon making a passing grade for this term in their required subjects be given the High School Diploma: Cora Allen, Dorothy Gertrude Armstrong, Tina Florence Chaney, Hilda Susan Harper, Loueatha Harrington, Ruby Charity Hart, Ruby Irene Henderson, Eva Grace Herrell, Thelma Arthur Hill, Mary Pearl Ritchie, Zola Faye Jackson, Anna Lilly Silvers, Helen Lucile Stith, Winifred Alpha Stone, Anna Belle Thompson, Doris Wyatt, Julia Gordon Barnes, Helen Dean Garard, Alice Calantha Seese, Ethel Fay Glenn, William Elmer Kinney, Robert Harold Maddox, Russell Jake Rosier, Paul Shelton, Kirby Alexander Walker, Otto Alfred Sunderwirth, Leslie David Harper, Samuel McAninch. Respectfully submitted, W. L. Coonrod, Principal.

A Show to Raise Funds for Clean-Up Week.

Learning that the Clean Up Committee was in need of funds, Mr. Parrish, who will start a new picture show in the opera house Saturday night, volunteered to put on a first class show Thursday and Friday nights, the entire proceeds of which will go to the committee.

Mr. Fisk donated the use of the opera house for those nights. The tickets are 5 and 10 cents and the opera house should be filled both nights.

Cemetery Meeting.

To whom it may concern—There will be a meeting at the Morris cemetery Friday, April 7, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of electing a board of directors and any other business that may come before the meeting.

By order of the Board, J. C. Berry, Sec'y.

Are You Ready for Your New SUIT?

We are Showing
Men's
Stylish Suits
$10.00 to $25.00

Young Men's
Nobby Suits
$8.50 to $15.00

Boys'
School Suits
Long Pants
$5.00 to $10.00

Boys'
Knee Pant Suits
$2.50 to $7.50

All the New Shapes in Spring Hats

Good Clothes and Low
Prices at
Joe Meyer
The Clothier